The student (1) is generally very regular in his attendance and a caution as to the future would no doubt have the desired effect. The student (2) has not yet joined the College having absented himself since the last vacation holidays. From previous similar conduct I recommend that he be fined 5 Rs or his name struck off in default of payment. The students (3) (6) (8) are scholarship holders. I propose that half a month's pay be deducted from their scholarships. The student (5) I recommend to be expelled. He is holding a Benares scholarship and I have already reported him to you for similar irregularities. The student (7) applied for leave of absence for 7 days which was granted - He did not however join the College for 10 days afterwards I suppose that his scholarship pay for last month be withheld

I have the honor to be

Hindu College & You both well
