

Amended Rule

Senior Scholarships of whatever value shall be tenable for six full years. Every Senior Scholarship when vacant shall be awarded to the pupil who shall obtain the highest number of marks above the minimum prescribed by the rules whether such pupil shall or shall not be the holder of a Senior Scholarship of inferior value. Provided always that no holder of a scholarship of any value who shall make the progress required by the regulations, shall be liable to forfeit the same before the expiration of the full period of six years, or to be degraded to a scholarship of inferior value by reason of his having obtained a smaller number of marks than any pupil who shall not be the holder of a scholarship of the like value.
