Sir,

In reply to your advertisement in the Amrita Bazar Patrika of 7.9.35, for a "Vernacular (Bengali) Teacher", I beg most humbly to apply for the post.

I obtained a First Class at the M.A. Examination in Indian Vernaculars (Bengali Principal) of the Calcutta University in 1933 and topped the list of regular students, who appeared with me, for which I was awarded the Kshetramani Prize by the University. I am now engaged in an interesting piece of research work under the kind guidance of some learned University Professors.

Copies of certificates and testimonials are enclosed herewith for your kind perusal.

Sept 13, 33.

I have much pleasure in certifying that Mr. Jiban Krishna Sett M.A attended my lectures in the Sixth year Post Graduate Class during 1932-33. He has secured a first class at the M.A. Examination in Indian Vernaculars this year. He was undoubtedly the best student in my class and has topped the list of successful candidates who were regular students of the Post Graduate Classes. Mr Sett has secured the third place in Class I, the first and the second being taken by ~~outsiders~~ outsiders. His knowledge of the subject is sound and I think it would be advisable for him to take up a piece of research work. I believe he will be able to do good work either as a Research Scholar in the University or as a Professor of Bengali Language and Literature in any of the Colleges affiliated in that subject. Mr. Sett has very pleasing manners and bears, so far as I know, an excellent character.

I am glad to write a testimonial to the character and abilities of Mr Jiban Krishna Sett who has this year topped the ~~list~~ list of regular students who appeared at the M.A. Examination in Indian Vernaculars (Bengali Principal). Mr Sett has taken a first class and he deserves his success. He is both intelligent and painstaking and was for some time attached to the Bangiya Sahitya Parishat as a student member. In my opinion he is quite fit to take up research work or teaching in any College affiliated to the Cal. University. I wish him success in life.

I have great pleasure in testifying to my high appreciation of the character and attainments of Mr Jiban Krishna Sett, M.A. He was my pupil in the Indian Vernaculars M.A. Classes in the University of Calcutta for two years (1931-1933), and attended my lectures on Bengali Philology in which subject he made excellent progress. In my classes he was regular and attentive, and his quiet and pleasant manners were instrumental in winning him the esteem of all. At the M.A. Examination of this year he did very well, having obtained a first class, with the third position among all candidates and the first among candidates appearing as regular students of the University. He is thus properly qualified to take up the teaching of Bengali, which was his principal language, to our College students, and I take this opportunity to support any application that he makes for teaching work of any kind, or for facilities in research for which I feel quite convinced he has the proper training and attitude. I wish him all success in life.

This is to certify that Mr. Jiban Krishna Sett ^{studied} ~~studied~~ for two years under me and has passed his M.A. in the First Class this year. I have great pleasure in testifying to his amiable nature and diligent habits. During the time he passed here as a P.G. student I had many occasions to come into close contact with him and I always found him a brilliant student of rare intelligence and parts. I wish him all success in life.

Mr Jiban Krishna Set M.A. was a pupil of mine in the Post Graduate Vernaculars Department of the Calcutta University during the session 1931-32. He took up Maithili as his subsidiary and Pali and Prakrit as Basic languages. He possesses talents of a high order and has a devotion for studies which is not seen ⁱⁿ average students. I believe he will be able to distinguish himself in the field of research. He is at present engaged in tracing the influence of the Upanishads on the Gauriya Vaishnavism. His result at the last M.A. Examination (held in 1933) does him credit. He passed with a First Class and topped the list of successful Collegiate students, though he could not keep pace with some senior non-Collegiate candidates who are Lecturers and Research assistants of the University. On the whole his place was 3rd in the First Class. I am sure he will shine in life if he succeeds in getting a good opening at the onset. I believe he bears a good moral character.

He attained to brilliant success at the Final Examination standing First amongst regular students. I have pleasure in testifying to his diligence, good conduct and ability. He is an exceptionally capable young man with attainments much above the average. His character is unexceptionable.

I have great pleasure in testifying to the high qualification of Mr. Jiban Krishna Sett, M.A. lately a student of the Indian Vernacular Class, Calcutta University. He has just obtained a First Class in Bengali, which was his principal subject for the M.A. Examination, 1933. He scored about 65 % marks in it and fared equally well in the Subsidiary and the Basic. He was a pupil of mine in the Indian Vernaculars Classes during sessions 1931-32 and 1932-33, and I had ample opportunity to come in touch with him and his work. I have always known him to be a sincere and hard working student of Bengali, and his results have justified my opinion of him. His equipment for Research work is remarkable. At the moment he is engaged in a most interesting piece of research- viz: Influence of Vaishnavism, Sufism and the Upanisads on Rabindranath, and I have every reason to believe that he will do credit to himself and to the work upon which he has ventured.

From the Principal

Jiban Krishna Set has obtained a First Class at the M.A. examination in Indian Vernaculars this year. I understand from a certificate given him by the Head of the Indian Vernaculars Department of the University of Calcutta that he is quite equal to the work of a Research Scholar in the University. I recommend ~~him~~ him for such work. He is also qualified to work as Professor of Bengali in any College. I shall be glad if he gets either appointment. He was a student of mine in College. He is intelligent and bears a good moral character. I recommend him for any suitable appointment. I am sure he will prove efficient.
