January, 10th 1938.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the Federal Public Service Commission has asked me to examine this year the I.C.S. scripts in British History, Paper 1. The examiner previously selected is unable, I am told, to value the answer books and I have been requested by the commission to take up the work. The remuneration will be about rupees four hundred and I beg to apply for your formal permission to accept the offer.
