Calcutta, Dated the 28th February, 1934.

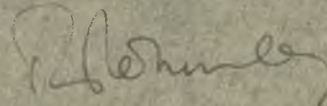

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith 2 specimen copies of a periodical "The Whip" for distribution to Government High Schools under your control. Its policy as set forth in the article "The Whip and its Mission" is to fight against terrorism and other movements subversive of Government and to create an atmosphere favourable to the successful working of the new constitution. I accordingly request you to direct each Government High School under your control to subscribe to the periodical.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
