Calcutta, the 28th February 1934.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith a specimen copy of an English Weekly "The Whip". Its policy as set forth in the article "The Whip & its Mission" is to fight against terrorism and other movements subversive of Government and to create an atmosphere favourable to the successful working of the new constitution. I would accordingly request you to subscribe to a copy of the periodical for the Common Room of your College.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.
