

March 2/78

Dear Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th inst.

in relation to the above mentioned matter.

I have conferred with the Board of Directors and they have decided to grant you a license for the use of the name of the company for a period of one year.

The license is subject to the following conditions:

1. You must pay the sum of $1000.00 to the company as a condition of the license.

2. You must agree to indemnify the company against all claims and damages which may be asserted against the company on account of the use of the name.

3. You must agree to hold the company harmless for all expenses incurred by the company in connection with the license.

4. You must agree to pay the company a royalty of 10% of the net sales of the goods manufactured by you under the license.

5. You must agree to execute and deliver to the company such instruments as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this license.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
John D. Smith

 service with the same, unless he is discharged. This is an amenable subject, with me, but full pay of absence for such an absence is not meant either in the Rules or the extra provisions. Mr. Clarke,

FROM H. H. RISLEY, Esq.,

Under-Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal,

TO THE

SIR,

I AM directed to forward herewith, for your information and guidance, and for communication to all officers subordinate to you, the following notification issued by the Government of India in the Home Department:—

No. 166, dated Fort William, the 30th January 1878.

NOTIFICATION.

In accordance with instructions received from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that officers in the service of Government, who may desire to solicit Government patronage, other than that of the Local Government, for literary or other works, shall apply to the Government of India, and not to the Secretary of State.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

H. H. RISLEY,

Under-Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.
