January 7th 1878.

My dear Tauney.

Can you let me have a room at the Presidency College on the 25th + 26th inst. for the Pleadings + Mock Trials Examination as on the 2 previous years.

228 candidates have applied to be examined, but a lot of those will not turn up. If I remember right, the room, which I had last year, ^{thru} ^{the} ^{the} contains about 200. Last year the room ^{the} was not quite filled, but there are more

Candidates this year.

5A

kindly let me know if you can give me a row so that I can advertise
 the fact in the Gazette.

The Bill for moving the tables & chairs into the Examination room, I will, as usual, lay ~~on~~ the last day of the Examinations.

Yrs truly
