Dear Sir

Thanks for yr note of 8th inst from Simla in reply w[hich] I write to say I'm right, I did send a telegram, but as yr postal stayed on at that time, this was unnecessary

Subsequently the insisted on 5 mig before his work was finished, to pass his manm[ent] in Lr. Ch. in Calcutta, but appears when the pt there, the office was closed. In the holidays!

He must surely have known this before? This looks like leaving under false pretences? doesn't it?

However I have sent written you

[illegible] letter, one in 9th June Penny wants the salary to 150 & excessive telegraph charges & briefly another for (9th) each up to 180 if necessary and offering a [illegible] bonus of [illegible] possible

Re one (9th) you ought to find waiting your return in Calcutta (if I have been sent on by to Suez)

However as Shaw failed in getting a note from Rangoon and its important that another mail should not be lost I have just sent you this telegram.
"Pray send draughtsman of possible, directly." which you will I write under stand to mean to send him by 1st steamer leaving Calcutta, Saturday 22nd or Sunday 23rd. I cannot here a week day at home (it sometimes delayed by the Suez mail) This is rather short notice as you only write Calcutta yourself today. But if the same man you had ready before is still unemployed, he may be ready to start at once.

Anyhow its important to me that another week should not be lost, so Shaw sent the telegram Once more apologising for all the trouble I am giving
