Exhortation

1. May we all be protected; may we enjoy together the knowledge we acquire; may we share the power of enlightenment; may we never fall into discord. (Prælector and the students will read this together)
2. Always speak the truth. Pursue the right track. Never fail in commitment to your chosen intellectual pursuit. Respect your parents. Respect your teachers. Serve the ailing and the deprived. Do not yield to fear. Do not succumb to greed. Share generously and put others before self. Be a lamp to thyself. (Only Prælector will read this)
3. We give our consent. May the paths we pursue be illuminated and potent with the good. (Only the students will read this)
